What I do today changes my tomorrow.

Get To Know our Staff

Matthew Smith is one of our amazing AmeriCorps team members. This means Matts main focus is on educating students about STEM related fields that they can explore for future career options.

Matt is currently a student at UVU studying Commercial Music. He is 22 years old and is originally from Plano, Texas, just north of Dallas. Matt was recently married and she is also a student at UVU and working in another Provo after school program. Matt is a family man, a musician, and a teacher. I love hard work, summer days, and more than anything else, I love helping people. He is hoping to graduate from UVU with a Commercial Music degree in a few years and start working in the music production field for his church.
